

Anti-Zionism is not anti-Semitism

Anti-Zionism is not anti-Semitism

Anyone who perceives Israeli policy in this way and is unable to separate the wheat from the chaff is almost inevitably drawn toward anti-Semitic views in the incoherent political debate in the West. This tendency is fueled by deliberately vague definitions of anti-Semitism, Judaism, and Zionism, as well as the differences between them. These definitions, which blur the boundaries of the concepts, form the basis on which the West acts and judges with full force, particularly in Germany. And so the circle closes. The Zionists need anti-Semitism to present themselves as victims and to use it to advance and achieve their criminal objectives. Some thoughts on a subject that will undoubtedly raise emotions among Zionists and ignorant fools in the West.

Zionism, Israel, Judaism

Judaism is the sum of culture, history, religion, and traditions of the Jewish people and has existed for approximately 4,000 years (see also our discussion of this topic in "Judaism, Zionism, Anti-Semitism and Israel: Abuse of Terms" from October 2023).

Zionism is a political movement that has existed in organized form since the First Zionist Congress in Basel in 1897. This movement has nothing to do with Judaism; rather, it was founded by the Viennese journalist Theodor Herzl, a completely non-religious man. The original goal of this political movement was the establishment or proclamation of the state of Israel, which was achieved in 1948. Today, the goal of Zionism is the creation of Greater Israel, which should dominate most of the Middle East. What will the goal be after that?

Theodor Herzl made the following statement: "The anti-Semites will become our most reliable friends, the anti-Semitic countries our allies." Theodor Herzl, 1896

The notion that Jews are threatened is a central element of the Zionist master plan. The Zionists hide behind anti-Semitism and Judaism to carry out their crimes. Another goal they pursue is the merging of Zionism and Judaism. The reason is simple: Many people have – rightly – hesitations about criticizing Jews, not only because of the Holocaust, but also because of the numerous pogroms that took place in almost every European country. By combining Zionism and Judaism, the Zionists create an excellent shield for themselves.

As long as Western politicians cannot distinguish between Zionism, Israel, and Greater Israel as Zionist projects on the one hand and Judaism on the other – and do not seem willing to do so – Judaism will lose and the Zionist criminals hiding behind it will win.

Who are the Zionists?

The US Congress supports Israel as a Zionist project with approximately $5 billion per year. Moreover, the US provides Israel with every form of political support for war, genocide, land theft, and the complete enslavement of people. In addition to Adelson's well-known large donation to Trump, entire hordes of American politicians are massively bribed to speak and vote in Israel's interest. In the current 119th US Congress (532 members), only 32 Jews are represented (6%); nevertheless, the US Congress, which is 87% Christian, has consistently voted in favor of Zionism since 1948 (figures: Pew Research).

To maintain a majority in Congress, 50% plus one vote (266+1) is needed; thus, at least 235 non-Jews together with 32 Jews determine the Zionist policy of the United States, bringing the non-Jewish share of Zionists in the US Congress to a staggering 88%.

Israel is nothing more than an American outpost with which the US controls the Middle East. In my opinion, the question of whether Israel controls the US or the US controls and manipulates Israel is irrelevant from a geopolitical perspective. Together they form a power bloc designed to subjugate one of the richest and most sensitive regions in the world. Distinguishing who dominates whom only becomes relevant when considering how this alliance can be neutralized.

What do Jews say about Zionism and Israel?

In the West, particularly in Europe, people are completely unaware that there are many Jews who despise and oppose Zionism and the Israeli project. Non-Jews, on the other hand – such as the German Chancellor – carry out a Zionist agenda regardless of the consequences. This goes so far that Friedrich Merz unconditionally and without reservation promotes and supports an Israeli and American attack on Iran, arguing that it is necessary.

This hate-monger Marie-Agnes Strack-Zimmermann, who works for the arms industry and supports every war as part of her work, has no objection whatsoever to stirring up hatred on a Nazi scale, she said a few days ago on the public broadcaster ARD: "Iran is a plague on this earth" Marie-Agnes Strack-Zimmermann, March 19, 2026

Filmbestand

People have absolutely no awareness or idea that we have once again reached the level of Hitler and Goebbels in terms of communication – and ultimately again at the expense of the Jews – because many Jews who oppose Zionism are once again persecuted for something they cannot change: the fact that they are Jewish. Below I show two Jewish speakers: a rabbi who assesses the issue from a religious perspective, and an Israeli journalist who highlights a sore point in Israeli society.

Rabbi Abraham Silberstein is a prominent Jewish scholar who advocates for animal rights within Judaism and serves as executive director of Voice of Rabbis. He is known for his critical stance toward biblical justification for land claims in the Middle East, based on teachings from the Torah and Talmud. "I want to make clear that violence against anyone is never permitted. But let me explain further.

- The Zionist government cannot survive without anti-Semitism. Zionists need Jewish people to live in constant fear so that their existence as so-called Jewish saviors appears truthful.
- Zionists will always use words like Holocaust and pogroms to describe incidents that do not even apply to Jewish people, but strictly to this Israeli government.
- Also, Zionists work day and night to merge the identity of Judaism and Zionism.
- They need Jews who are responsible for their actions, otherwise they cannot use anti-Semitism as a shield.

- They will always say it concerns all Jewish people. Not Israel, so that we have to pay for it.
- We see this on the streets of Europe, and now also in America. It must stop.
- Zionists work for their selfish agendas at the expense of Jewish people."

Gideon Levy, an Israeli journalist, is an outspoken critic of Israeli policy and condemns the widespread belief among Israelis that they are superior to the rest of the world. In the linked speech, he sarcastically criticizes the following points: Israel as the chosen people, Israelis as the great victims – the only victims – and Palestinians as inhuman, because Israelis would be superior.

Conclusion

The West not only gives criminal Zionists carte blanche for genocide and waging illegal wars – acts that according to Nuremberg criteria would all be punishable by death – but it also finances these malicious acts at the expense of taxpayers, who are driven into poverty by these wars. Anyone who objects to this is labeled an anti-Semite and excluded – by people who do not even realize that anti-Semitism is the lifeblood of the Zionists.
